

HR Project Manager

FF06 HR, recruitment and L and D · ISCO-08 2423 · CBS 0415 Human Resources and Career Development Specialists · seniority medior · Also known as: HR Programme Manager, People Project Manager

Leads hr projects such as implementing a new hr system, a reward review or a reorganisation, and manages planning, stakeholders and delivery.

The hr project manager works temporarily and on results, driving change within the hr function or organisation wide people programmes. Unlike the hr adviser, this role is not tied to a fixed group of managers but to an assignment with a start and an end. Selection often tests hr content only, while in practice the bottleneck is project control, namely holding scope and schedule when the board and the line add new wishes along the way.

6 Assessment methods and validity

The validities are the corrected meta-analytic estimates from Sackett, Zhang, Berry and Lievens (2022) in the Journal of Applied Psychology, which replace the older Schmidt and Hunter (1998) figures. The spread matters as much as the mean: with a high SD, validity varies strongly by context.

Assessment centre	0.29	0.09	Multiple exercises, multiple assessors, dimension-wise scoring.
Work sample test	0.33	0.09	The candidate performs a representative work sample under standardised conditions.

8 How to use this profile

1. Agree the profile with the hiring manager before the first candidate is measured. Weights shifted afterwards make the outcome indefensible.
2. Choose the assessment method per skill from the Assessment method column. Combine at most three methods per candidate.
3. Calibrate the assessors in a two-hour session using the anchors in chapter 5. Anchors without rater training deliver little.
4. Fill in the match calculator and discuss the gaps in the development conversation. Type A and type G are selection criteria, not one-quarter development goals.
